

I am concerned about too few owners of broadcast stations, both Radio and TV! It seems here in Seattle, our media is owned by just a few large corporations, and I do not feel that we get fair and objective reporting! It seems they all have an shaping message. and I do not believe that the media should shape our attitudes, they just need to report happenings fairly and accurately !
Thank You